

Table for 5 master class presentation

Table for 5 is pleased to offer a variety of options for your customized master class. Offerings include performance and discussion of various musical styles, presentation and interpretation by Table for 5. The group will listen to various individuals or ensembles and work with them to further develop their skills. Areas stressed in the master class are awareness of the performer's physicality and personality on stage, sound, tonality, ensemble blend and appropriate repertoire.

Table for 5 addresses the realities of launching, sustaining and coping with a career in the arts.

A relaxed setting allows young singers/performers to gain valuable knowledge and insight in order to enhance their singing and performing ability.

Table for 5 encourages questions and verbal exchange to create an interactive, supportive and rewarding experience.
