

Table for 5

"Professional, talented, and engaging...real crowd pleasers"

Robert Hanson, Musical Director, Elgin Symphony Orchestra

"...voices like hot-battered rum"

Judith Reinert, Kane County Chronicle

Chicago-based vocal quintet Table for 5 delights audiences with their unique vocal harmonies and musical styling in their live performances on the concert stage.

The group began its tenure together with the creation of A Victorian Christmas, which became a successful Chicago area holiday concert. The ensemble's attracted sellout houses throughout the holiday season and established the group as an audience favorite. Since then, the group has been the featured guest artists with the award-winning Elgin Symphony Orchestra in their Holiday Spectacular concerts for the past five holiday seasons.

In the fall of 2001, Table for 5 premiered their new audience-pleasing symphony pops concert, Sounds of the 60s with the West Shore Symphony Orchestra. The ensemble has also become a frequent guest artist in various concert halls across the Midwest. In the summer of 2001, Table for 5 was featured in the cabaret series at the new Metropolis Performing Arts Center.

Table for 5's extensive repertoire has attracted the attention and praise of various corporate organizations including Motorola, Morton Salt, Inc., Saks Fifth Avenue, MCL Management, and The Easter Seals Telethon.

Collectively the ensemble boasts such individual credits as the national tours of Les Miserables, World Goes Round, Music of the Night, and Sophisticated Ladies, as well as performances at Chicago's Goodman Theater and Orchestra Hall and the Denver Center for the Performing Arts, aboard the Royal Viking Cruise Lines, with the Chicago Symphony Chorus Resident Ensemble, The Ovations Series, Humanities Festival, and the Kenny Rogers Christmas Show.

Table for 5 has three recordings: two holiday discs and one featuring the music of the 1930s and 1940s.
